PROVEN METHODS FOR TARGETING AND WINNING CUSTOMERS AND PROJECT OPPORTUNITIES

About the Program

This is a hands-on program to help you sell more work at higher margins. You will learn a strategic approach for differentiating your firm and outselling the competition. Stop selling and start learning how to help customers buy. This is a collaborative approach that builds lasting relationships, cements customer loyalty and gives you the confidence you need to get out there and sell work.

Are you charged with:

- Keeping in touch with customers and winning work?
- Identifying the right customers to help your firm grow?
- Creating strategies to sell value instead of simply the lowest possible price?
- Finding the customer “hot buttons” that give your firm an advantage over the competition?
- Getting your foot in the door with future clients?

Then this program is for you!

Who Should Attend?

- Presidents
- Vice Presidents
- Heads of preconstruction, estimating, operations or business development
- Anyone who is involved in securing work with customers

Benefits

Construction Selling Skills will give you the skills you need to ...

- Get your foot in the door and meet the right contacts
- Build effective win strategies — from the customer's point of view
- Sell more to existing customers — while expanding your list of contacts
- Discover approaches that differentiate you from the competition
- Leverage gatekeepers and get to the right decision-makers
- Turn customer hot buttons into key selling messages
- Help you get pre-positioned to win that key project
- Create customer loyalty and commitment
- Use objections to build client conviction

The interactive format delivers the skills needed to be successful in selling — whether you are new to the game or a seasoned pro!

This three-day program will help you create and grow customers and profitable backlog. You will see immediate results in your firm's revenue and your bonus plan.

- Identify the keys to success in positioning your firm over the competition
- Understand the role strategy plays in getting selected

Building Your Strategy to Win

- Selling value in construction is complicated
- Link your market strategy to sales efforts
- Leverage a 4C model for getting the results you need
- Incorporate the five strategies that create a balance win strategy
- Know what it takes to win — every time

Selling Yourself and Your Company

- Customers “buy” you first — make the right first impression
- Determine with which customers to spend the most time
- Get the leg up by calling on the right contact
- Uncover their real decision-making criteria
- Keep-in-touch strategies that keep you in the game
- Identify the roles that are played — economic decision-maker, gatekeeper, champion, etc.

Getting Ready — Doing Your Homework

- Build the reasons to meet that open doors and get you meetings
- Learn how to quickly engage the customer in the conversation
- Apply the hidden structure behind every effective customer meeting
- Use discovery skills to uncover and prioritize hot buttons
- Create call plans that set you above the competition
- Develop the win strategy needed to capture a specific project
- Create selling messages that grab the client's attention and keep it

Reading and Responding to the Customer

- Read the customer and the situation
- Leverage your understanding of the customer's business climate
- Learn how to quickly build rapport
- Defuse confrontation and unproductive conflicts
- Know the players — who is really on your side

What to Do When They Say “NO”

- Prevent most objections from ever happening
- Learn the two strategies to deal with your toughest objections
- Leverage objections into a competitive advantage
- Cement customer commitment to selecting you over the competition

Moving Forward

- Results come from implementing the ideas you learn
- Explore what it takes to successfully implement change
- Build your plan forward — to go from learning to day-to-day results
